To the graduating class of 2004:

Since entering this school as anxious freshmen, and now leaving as determined seniors, we have come to realize how much these four years have meant to us. Throughout our years we have been striving for individualism, and finally we are able to reach it. Our involvement in activities offered at school have shown our dedication to this journey and our outlook on the future. It has been a wonderful journey. The memories that remain will never be forgotten. These very unforgettable memories will affect our lives, and the people that we become. Through all of the struggles and obstacles, we have stood strong, and are now ready to face the real world. We will take with us all that we have learned, and all that we have experienced. We will not forget all the friends we have made throughout these four unforgettable years, because they have shaped who we are today. On the day of graduation, we will walk across the field, vaguely remembering the first time we set foot on it as freshmen. Now as seniors, we are filled with the bittersweet realization that this will be our last time. We have learned and grown with each other, thus making it that much harder for us to say goodbye. These high school memories: priceless.

Mr. White 2004 Yearbook Dedication

Every student that steps foot into Mr. White's chemistry class is prepared to be amazed. Since Mr. White has such an enthusiastic way of teaching he has inspired many students to want to learn.

Mr. White was born in Vermont, and then moved to Manchester, Connecticut, where he attended Manchester High School. Upon graduating high school, Mr. White was accepted into Central Connecticut State University to major in mathematics. Rather than starting out teaching, he began a career working in a hospital. He changed career fields and student taught at South Windsor High School. He enjoyed the school and the people, therefore he continued to teach here. Mr. White has been teaching at South Windsor High School for 27 years.

Mr. White has received many nicknames over the course of his teaching career. Some of the names include Double White, Uncle Whitey, and Señor Blanco. Mr. White does not mind any of his names, and in fact thoroughly enjoys them. A hobby Mr. White enjoys is stamp collecting. His favorites are chemistry stamps that he places around his room to brighten it up. He also likes spending quality time with his pet cat, Cleo.

Mr. White went to San Diego, California last year where he trained for the new LINK CREW program. This program involves upperclassmen helping freshmen adapt to the high school environment. It gives the freshmen a chance to feel comfortable about their next four years here.

If you ever get the opportunity to experience one of Mr. White's amazing classes, take advantage of it. Your high school career will not be complete without a day or even a high (four) from the infamous Mr. White. His reasoning for only having four fingers on one hand is very sketchy. He has many stories: "it was cut off while I was at the bar..." or "I was in a horrible fist fight..." No one ever believes any of them, but if you do want to hear one, go ask him yourself.

Because of all the efforts Mr. White has displayed toward the student body and his commitment to South Windsor High School, it is only fitting we should do something to honor him. This was an easy decision to dedicate this year's Centurion yearbook to Mr. David White, because spending a day with Mr. White: priceless.

Prince William

A few people have told Ryan that he looks like Prince William. In response he said, "No, I don't think we look that much alike." Ryan doesn't think they are anything alike because Prince William is rich and a prince. Other people say that they have the same hair color and that it is the same style.

"Yes, a lot of people have told me that I look like her, I get it a lot," says Katelyn. Danielle and Katelyn's lips, cheeks, and hair are all very similar. "I think that our faces look a lot alike, my hair has also always been the same color and length as hers." A lot of other people agree that the two are very much alike.

Erin Coburn

Christy Romano

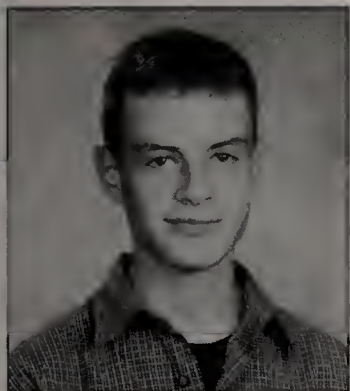

Almost anyone you ask thinks that Erin Coburn looks just like Christy Romano, a.k.a. Ren Stevens of the hit show "Even Stevens." Erin said, "Some people even ask me to sing Ren's 'Moon Song.'" So what does Erin think of the matter? She admitted, with a smile similar to Ren's, "I really don't think I look anything like her."

When thinking of celebrity look-alikes, Bri Dillman is one of the first people that comes to mind. She recalled, "I have been told by a few people that I resemble Amy Lee of Evanesence." When asked what she thought of this, she said, "I don't think I look like her AT ALL! I feel it might be the squinty slanted eyes, the fat face and dark hair! Yah!"

What's your scariest moment?

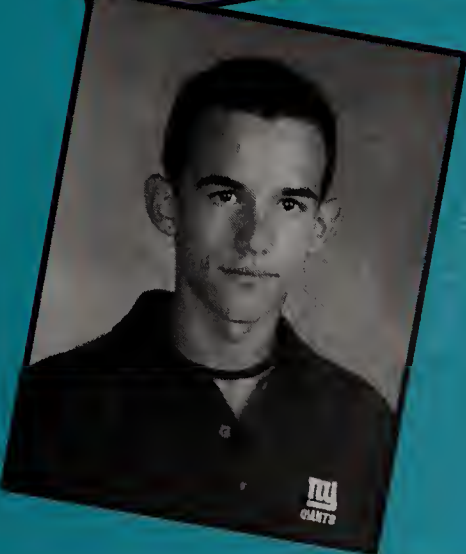

"I was on a ski lift and I couldn't resist licking the pole. My tongue got stuck to it. It was the scariest moment of my life."

"My scariest moment was when I got stuck in my seatbelt and a cop had to come and cut me out of it."

"The time that this kid pulled his pants down at 4-H camp was the scariest moment ever!"

What not to do!

Going out with that "special someone" is always a fun experience. But sometimes, it just doesn't work out. Here's what NOT to say to end a BAD date.

1. My psychic says I have to be home by 9:30 or my hair will fall out.
2. You have beautiful eyes, I can't wait to see what our kids will look like.
3. Dude I gotta run, my lice medicine needs to be re-applied every hour.
4. I have to re-arrange the body parts in my freezer.
5. The man on television told me to stay tuned.
6. I never said I would go out with you, that was my evil twin.
7. I might see someone who knows me.
8. If I'm not home by 10, what will my boyfriend think?
9. My dad said I can't date until I'm married.
10. I have been procrastinating, I have to pop my zits.

Eric Willadsen and Katie Thorpe the day after a bad date. Just kidding, they are a happy couple with acting skills!

Mila Kunis

Stephanie Ferreira is one of the few people who have the same bone structure as Mila Kunis. As you might know Mila Kunis plays on the Fox station's "That 70's Show". When you're talking to Stephanie, you can see how she and Mila are so alike. They're both funny and beautiful.

When I told Jeff that he looked like Eminem. He didn't think he looked anything like him. His ex-girlfriend said that his personality brought out the Eminem side of him. "When you think of it, Eminem and Jeff have a lot of similar traits. They diss people all the time."

What's your biggest obsession?

"My biggest obsession is pigs. Ever since I was little I've loved pigs. I have piggy everything!"

"Fire is my biggest obsession. You could say I'm a pyro. It's just so amusing. When I'm bored I just play with fire. Don't forget to stop, drop and roll!"

What's your priceless moment so far at S.W.H.S?

"My priceless moment so far at South Windsor High would be the time I stayed after school for volleyball and this girl was put into a locker and couldn't get out."

Julie Anweiler

"Getting my first 'A' was my priceless moment so far at S.W.H.S. Seeing the reactions on my parents faces, made my day. My friends were so proud of me, they made me a congrats cake!"

Linda Delu

"My priceless moment so far at high school, would be the time where I saw these guys trip these two girls in the hallway. It was the funniest thing I have ever seen."

MakeOver

Lindsay Delusso is labeled a prep. We decided to give her a change. First her hair was put into cornrows, and pulled back tight to give it the exotic look. Then we dressed her in an Ecco red shirt and pants, for that drastic change in appearance. The makeover transformed her into a more confident person. After we were all done, she looked in the mirror. The finished product didn't reflect what she truly felt on the inside. "Even though getting my hair done hurt, this was a fun experience. I feel like a totally new person". Lindsay was pleased, but of course you can't change a prep. So she went back to her old style, and she still remains as the same person. Even though we can't change Lindsay Delusso, we still love her for who she is.

Lindsay Delusso changes from prep to thugged out!

Boys' Lacrosse

The South Windsor High School Varsity Lacrosse team had a rocky season. They opened up the season losing some close games by 1 goal. However, the Bobcats bounced back and won some tough games. Even though they had their problems, the Bobcats ended the regular season with a record of 8 wins and 8 losses. With these 8 wins came the 75th career win of the Varsity Lacrosse coach, Marc Graham, which was against Farmington. The Bobcats qualified for the Northern Division Tournament and the Division 1 State Tournament, but lost in the first round of each. Preparations for the next season have begun. A new senior class hopes to lead the Bobcats to a winning season, maintaining commitment and pride as a priority.

Girls' Lacrosse

This season, the girls team continued in its quest to increase the competitiveness of the season. The girls played teams outside of the conference, which included Darien and Wilton. To prepare for this challenging season, the girls also continued with early morning weightlifting during the off-season. The Bobcats' 2003 season started off with a bang, as the girls won their first game against New Canaan, one of the top ranked teams in Connecticut. Apparently, their hard work and dedication paid off because the team finished third in the conference and qualified for the tournament. Not only did the Bobcats have an incredibly successful season, but they also became a close group and had a lot of fun. Next season, Coach Duclos hopes to make the schedule even more challenging and help the team to become the best it can be.

Boys Baseball

The Boys Junior Varsity and Varsity teams started out the season with a bang, then had an up and down season. The team captain Nick Baseel helped to unite the athletes as well as keep the team in the best physical shape. Varsity baseball went on to qualify for state tournament after a rocky start and the team morale was lifted.

The Junior Varsity team also did very well with their season. The team had to integrate two new positions to the team. The positions were filled with no problem and helped the team. They finished with a ten game winning streak and had an overall great record of thirteen wins and four losses.

The team's goal for next year is better communication between all players and coaches and maintaining top physical condition. In addition, the team would like to continue the close unity that they created over the season.

Girls Softball

The South Windsor High School Varsity Softball team had a very young team this season with only 2 seniors. Seven out of fourteen of the varsity players were freshmen and sophomores. Nevertheless, a foundation was laid. The team will have 12 returning players in 2004, so a return to the state tournament and a run at the conference title is anticipated. The Junior Varsity team will add some of their talent, coming out of a strong winning season. Through the combination of the returning Varsity players and the hidden talent from the Junior Varsity team, the Girls Softball team should be a top contender during the next season.

The boys and girls outdoor track teams had an overwhelming number of athletes, and they all contributed to the successful season. The boys team unfortunately lost their weight coach at the beginning of the season as well as two star athletes. Teams placed well in the conference and championship meets. The girls track team won the CCC East Championship meet. With their only loss during the regular season against E.O Smith. The boys only loss was against Manchester.

Boys Tennis

The Boys Tennis team finished the season successfully, despite the "monsoons" that occurred throughout the season. The bad weather caused some problems with practices. However, the weather did not affect the Bobcats' playing. The team finished second in the conference with a record of nine wins and three losses. Coach Hermes described the highlight of the season as witnessing the personal growth of the players. The team had five all-conference players, including Kevin Pinto, Mikhail Gorbounov, Alexei Goshdigian, Mike Carlton, and Brendan Coburn. Next season, Coach Hermes hopes his team will continue to mature and increase its level of play.

The girls tennis team continued to improve this season and finished second in the CCC East. This was an especially significant accomplishment considering the bad weather that occurred during the season. There were a number of rainy days that took away practice time. Also, the team was fairly young this year, comprised of a majority of underclassmen. Led by their two senior captains, Ashly Hovland and Rachel Hamilton, the Bobcats demonstrated team unity and excellent sportsmanship at all times. Next season, Coach Rizzuto hopes to build on the excellent foundation that was established by this year's team, and aims for a first place finish.

Boys' Soccer

The 2003 boys' soccer team worked hard as they tried to improve upon last season. This was not an easy task with a fairly young team that included eight sophomores. But, the team did not give up. They came in fifth place in the conference, with a record of 4 wins, 10 losses, and 2 ties. Two players, John Ursone and Josh Silvia, were all-conference selections. Coach St. Jean cited one of the season's highlights as defeating Windsor for the first time. Next year, he hopes to continue to improve and play in the State Tournament.

Girls' Soccer

The 2003 girls' soccer season started off with a loss to Glastonbury, but there wouldn't be another for a long time. During the season, the girls won close games against both Fermi and Woodstock. This winning streak allowed the girls to finish their conference play with no losses and only one tie. In State Tournament play, the girls defeated Trumbull and advanced to the quarter finals. Unfortunately, Simsbury knocked the Bobcats out of the tournament. The team had a very successful season and was aided by two All-State players, Katie Brower and Amy Desmarais. The girls were happy to end the season as conference champions with only two losses.

The South Windsor High School Varsity Football team began their training early in the summer. The boys constantly worked hard in the weight room and at various training clinics to improve their physical strength and condition. The team opened their season with a victory over Newington. The team was fired up. However, as the season progressed the team lost some close games. Even though the team struggled through mental and physical difficulties, all of the boys improved both individually and as a team. As the season concluded, the boys fought their hardest for a victory against their rival squad from Rockville. The boys played with the passion and emotion that the coaches were looking for all year.

In 2003 the Boys' Cross-Country team had a large turnout with several underclassmen. The younger members of the team had strong and seasoned role models to look up to. The seniors helped to keep the team motivated and in peak condition. There were improvements both as a group and individually. Some highlights during the season were placing fifth in the conference and having sophomore David Rounce as the Varsity all-conference selection.

They entertained the fans with their original and unique choreography, as well as led the crowd in motivating cheers. In order to prepare for the football season, the girls went through vigorous training at cheerleading camp. A lot of time and effort was put into the 2003-2004 cheerleading season by each girl. This year's girls basketball season was amazing. Having a great group of females contributed to the ongoing success on the court. Since they won a majority of their games, it resulted in the South Windsor Bobcat girls entering the State Basketball Tournament. With only one Senior Emily Maurer, the girls Varsity team was unfortunately defeated by the competition for the second year. Junior Varsity also was consistent in their performance and strived for excellence. This year the team had a new head coach, Neil Rodman, who picked up the Bobcats during a rebuilding period. They won important games, such as against Glastonbury, and a come from behind tie against Fermi. The Bobcats ended the year on a 14-1 win against Manchester on Senior Night. All-Conference and All-State Players

The South Windsor sports community has always been very competitive. This year was especially successful, due in part to the strong leadership of many players. This year's athletic teams were full of talent, shown by the large number of players who achieved recognition as All-Conference and All-State players. These talented students are chosen by other coaches who have noticed their outstanding ability and leadership skills. Congratulations to all the players who were recognized for these awards in the 2003-2004 seasons.

These four years of high school flew by for me. However, I'm here now as a senior going off to college soon, looking forward to the future. I just wanted to thank all of my teachers that helped me throughout the years. Most of all I would like to thank my family. To my parents who were always there for my brother and I, and who I can always be myself around. Especially my sister who is my best friend, who helped me in my tough times in school, and socially. Missy I'll never forget you. You're a great person who had such a positive impact on me. Becky we've had some great times; Subway, Not Another Teen Movie, and rumi in café study. Ashlee I won't forget you either, math class junior year, good times. Best of luck to all my friends who I will always remember!

Four years seem to fly by so fast; it all seems like a blur. While everything seems so close, it seems so far away at the same time. A lot of fun things happened these last two years, like the trip to Marist, the band Mafia, family business, the robot trip, trips to Friendly's, marching band was a hoot; it all rocked my socks. I know the robot trip was no Epcot, but you all made it great either way. The parties with Chris Davis will always be remembered. Shout outs to my friends Mike, Dave, JB, Michelle, Julia, Kelly ow! Lindsey, Morris, Ashly, Bui, Rob, Ben, Whit, JT, Mike, and Mike. But of course, thank you Katie; for always being there for me these last four years. I love you more than you can imagine. Thanks everyone for such a memorable experience, and good luck with yourselves and your tomorrows.

Christopher Trung Can Bui

The final entry of a South Windsor High School Penitentiary inmate #8852. All my life I have been jailed in many places adults call, a large dimly lit building with many small rooms, school. Now in my final year of my endless sentence I am ready to rejoin society as an adult. Though I wasted my youth in these places I have met the greatest of people, my friends. Those few who I will never forget, "the Crew," Matt, Jess, Mike, Julie, and the rest of the extended "Crew." Nor the others I call friends. Well as I bid farewell to these prison walls that with held my freedoms, I sigh in relief. Even though now I'm out of my prison cell, I don't know what the future holds for me. Will it be execution or freedom? Only time will tell. But in the great words of Einstein, "Education is what remains when one has forgotten everything he has learned in school."

High School is a time for learning and growing, for books and lectures, but also a time to forge friendships and make memories that can last a lifetime. In the garden of life the most beautiful flower is a friend, special thanks to Wubba, Cat, and Mom for your undying love and guidance. Tink and Amber thanks for all of your support. Thanks to all of my teachers who have taught me so much. Also I want to thank anyone who has done wrong by me, you have taught me the most. The key to being successful is doing the things you know you have to do even when you don't want to do them. Make life what you want it to be and make your own miracles. Family is a blessing but you may not always see it, confide in them and they will show you the way. It's been hard running with one shoe, thanks baby for my glass slipper and the fairy tale I've always dreamed of.

Kathryn Clark

You can't grow up unless you move on. These last four years are just a stage behind us now. Good luck to everybody, whether I knew you or not I wish the best. Can't talk about these years without my crew: Alan Cusson Drew Nelli Brent Morin Ravi Patel- our games of 21, lugin, going to the beach, and just cruising- keep it real, no matter where you guys end up, I'll miss you. Sorry I can't go lady hunting with you anymore I found that beauty of my life. Nikki- we get through these four years and life is ours; we can mold it whatever way we want. I know we will. I love you more than my heart can hold- through eternity. To my family: Not just through your words but through your actions you brought me from infant to man. Everything you did I watched and became better because of it. You're the reason for my success and the reason I won't fail. Bob and Steve, you are role models to me, my heroes, stay that way. Thank you. To everybody: find something to live for, work at it, stay positive, and keep the faith. It will all work out. Good luck.

I didn't think this would end so fast. My friends have kept me sane and when you guys couldn't, you've gone crazy with me. Meg we've had our share of fun, it's been insane. Driving around and around and around, talking on the phone about nothing and everything. You always understand and try to help and most of the time you do. Remember you're my one and only. Ky, we have the most fun together because we're twins, two Petes in a pod. I'm glad to have a friend like you and the many nights with you and Catcher definitely make life exciting. Maggie, you love men! You have a movie quote for every situation and you always know the right thing to say...brownies! Amy, baby beluga! You are always there to make sure I'm using my head, without you I'd be headless? To mom, dad and Bri, I'm lucky to have you thanks for putting up with me.

Alan Cusson

It is scary seeing yourself grow as fast as you do during your years in high school. I have gained memories that will stay with me throughout my life and have learned lessons that have changed me forever. Chillin' wit the crew, Mike, Brent, Drew, and Ravi, hanging out, playing ball, going to the beach. Snowboarding, Woodbury is the greatest place ever, and Stowe will be a memory that I will always remember. Tearing it up with Craig and Charry and even my little brother, one ball Bill made it fun too. Good luck to each and every person I have gotten to know and have made an impact on my life. You all know who you are. Also, thank you to my family, who have had to put up with all my "disfunctioning". I would not have been where I am today as a person if it weren't for any of them.

Just where did four years go? They've seemed to disappear in all those good times. Prom, FIRST competitions in Florida, Hartford, and elsewhere, the endless after school naps, hanging out with friends, going to the movies, getting Chinese food, and not to mention 32 cheeseburgers; all great fun. Many thanks to those who kept me occupied: Winston, Jen, Danielle, and all the others who were around when I needed them. A goodbye to all those I nodded to in the hall, it's always nice to know you guys are there. I have to thank my family, the source of my insanity, but also the base camp for my climb to success. Thanks Mom, Dad, Jen, Alyssa, and Alex. Four years of high school complete, and now to continue the best time of our lives. In the words of Samuel L. Jackson's Mitch Hennessey, "This ain't no ham on rye pal."

Looking back to the time when I first came here. I want to thank all the people who took me under their wing and showed me the ropes. I want to say to my band mates, Ryan R, Mike L, Rich B, and Zach C that it has been an awesome ride. Marc Ditman and Mike Elder have stayed with us even though they are no longer part of SW. I still can't believe having written this, that we actually made it to senior year. I remember that when I was a freshman, I used to think what it would be like to be a senior. It turns out that it isn't much different from all the other grades. Except for the college applications, licenses, and looking forward to college (A.K.A freedom). I wish everyone the best of luck and I will see your successful lives at the ten-year reunion.

I leave this school a better person than when I walked in four short years ago. I will see you all on the outside.

It's hard to believe that four years has already gone by. I owe all my smiles and good times to the best friends ever: Kaitlyn, Erin, Ali, Jenna, Katie, Krissy, Karly, Dalpe - You've given me so many unforgettable memories: our trips to the beach, prom '03, Erin's beach house, movie nights, forking lawns, nights with our college boys, homecomings, trips to Wendy's and Dunkin Donuts, Florida and Vermont with Kaitlyn, Target, random nights, New years. To my sister Kaitlyn- thanks for the endless talks, advice, and laughter, I don't know what I would've done without you girlfriend. To my Mom and Dad: I am a stronger person because of you. I wouldn't be where I am today without your love and support. To the Collins family- you're like a second family to me, I'm going to miss you! Left to SWHS: lax girls- you've given me so many good times

After all the struggle and nonsense, the end of this road is here. First off I want to thank my family. I know you will always be there for me and I love you for that. To my buddies: Lines, Cross, Joey, Tigre, Kevin O, Max, Sabo, Devlin, Queno, Griff, Steve-O and the rest, I love you all. My boys Panora and Mconster, you guys are the greatest friends I have ever had. I will always trust you and have your back. I thank all of you for making these last four years the time of my life. All the crazy nights, The beach "Shake your body like a snake ma...pop" "Yeah diversity!", Rides in E-Dub, Halo, BBQ's "your mom is not a gorilla", foggy late nights, quitting the foosball team, "exorcist style", student ID's in Canada, pre-games, tailgating "Ay girl you pretty!", arguing for fun, and Taco Bell. Thanks for the memories. Just Live!

Where the heck did these past four years go? I have had so many fun times here at SWHS. Some of them are the junior prom and doing the tech crew for the musical all four years. The cast parties were a blast, especially the sophomore year one. I liked going to the basketball games and football games at school. Playing rec. basketball all four years. Demon Deacons rule. I'll remember all the fun times in theater management the past three years. Going on the New York trip to see Thoroughly Modern Millie. Being in unified sports was the way to end my high school years. It was really nice talking to all you guys that I have met and known these four years. I would like to thank my Mom, my Dad, Brian, Linda and the rest of my family. Thanks to my sister Amy for teaching me everything about the school and the theater.

Geoff Haines

Four years in this school corrupted me, but I had fun. First and foremost- shout out to my Garston crew- Big D, Charles, Ryan, Dan and Kyle. Dan and Kyle- hold it down next year. Ry, I'll see you at MCC. Daries, unforgettable times freshman year- forget the drama. Hart- through thick and thin, you have been there and I thank you for that. Foley- squirrels? Stay absolutely insane kid and call me up whenever you want to jump off the roof into the pool. Whatever, another class come and gone with the wind. I'll see you kids in the real world. Don't read it if you don't like it.

Snaps to this senior of the month - where to begin? How about nights at Jim's house and the lake, or the campouts, or the Barn? I remember all the good times with the boys - Joe, Corey, Mark, Jim, Steve, Mike, Pat, Kevin (Biggie Smalls), Alex, Brian, Dave, and Tim, but there's so many more. Can't forget the girls - Lori, Kelly, Katlyn, Jess, Erica, Jana, and all the others. Last but not least Cara, who made my life so much brighter. Love you sweetie! I'll never forget prom, 5/31! Soccer was a disaster, but it was still fun. The trash can band and the cop who wouldn't let me rush the field, and good times at 4-H camp - My momma don't wear no socks... The Halloween party at the barn, and all the time up in Rhode Island. So much more I forgot... oh well, I guess the past is past and the present is here, so here's to the future, whether cloudy or clear.

I can't explain what these years have meant. I've been working hard and now I'm spent. The time was hard and now it's done. I guess I can look back and finally say it was fun. These days have kept me busy and the weekends made me dizzy, but I'll never forget the times we've shared from running on the beach and dyeing our hair with bleach. Remember overdosing on caffeine and our whole skim boarding scene. Just remember to be glad and think about the nights we had. These last four years have made me who I am. The long weekends with my friends that ended up at the beach and making plans to camp out. The countless shows at the Webster. Getting lost for hours in Rhode Island when we swore we knew how to get there. Riding motorcross and BMX with all my friends. I'll always remember spending time with my friends in New Hampshire. Thanks to everyone who's been there and believed.

Karen Hart

First and foremost I want to thank my mother and my father for always being there for me through all the times I made mistakes. You were always there for me, thanks I would also like to thank my grandparents for always being there for me when I needed something. Shawn man, boy did we have some crazy times: all of our secret missions man they were great. And who can forget about everyone hanging at Ryan's house every Friday night. Joe, man did we get into some trouble when we were growing up together but whatever, it was all good because of all the trouble we got into we learned from it. But it is time to move on for all of my friends. Good luck to everyone. I'm out finally. To my family, I love you thanks.

"A chuckle and cheers to how it used to be". To my ladies from the times at the Spot, dancing in the circle, so young and so naïve, still young but somehow aware. Irene, I couldn't have had a better partner in crime. We came as a team and left as a couple. Nothing can tear us apart. Kyle, silent times or sleepovers, always my best boy. Irene, Frances, Heather, Lori- at my worst or getting wild you never left me in the dark. My love for you is more than a "remember that time." (those are for us to watch in the infamous video) Adam J, "it wasn't chemistry, it was electricity". Linz and Katie- bittersweet to say the least, the friendships have faded but my love for you remains. Claire and Ben, you showed me what life is about. Nick, my first love, I cherish what we had. "I just sit back, and think of my last four years six pack, gunnin' in my years, jet black Integra and a wu-banger in the ear real relaxed, reading real love stories like Caesar and Shakespeare." These four years had their ups and downs, but I wouldn't trade the memories for anything. Waxy, Ian, Barry fun times boys, Peace rides through E-dub and going for runs to East Hartford. Hittin' up the parties and getting them started, ragin' out everywhere we go. Fun times at the lake house and at my house with cats, Waxy and Ian remember our first half pounder? Mom and Dad, thank you for always being here for me and getting me this far, I love you. Christina F. I love you...

Thanks to my parents, uncle's family, grandparents, teachers and my friends. I was able to spend three years in America successfully because of all of you. You all helped me so much. I appreciate that and will never forget it. Stink bombs gave me trouble and a lesson. That is a bad memory in high school. In this country students can do many things beside study. I learned how to make jewelry and play the guitar. I had fun at those classes and thanks to the teachers who helped me in many ways. Hey guys, thanks for being my friends, I'll never forget you. -Asian Kid-

Four years have come and gone and soon we will have graduated and will begin to move on with our lives. During these four years, I have participated in Chorus and Choral Spectrum, and I have met many people through these classes, and especially through the Teen Center. There I helped with community service projects. I also met my girlfriend Mary Jane there. I do not know where I would be if I never met her. I love you Mary. I have made many friends throughout the years including David, Radic, Nate, Stehpan, and many more, whom I will miss when I leave. I leave to South Windsor my tolerance, without it I would not be where I am today. Goodbye South Windsor.

I want to thank Mark, Jim, and Dewey for always being good friends to me, and to everyone else I have not mentioned. Thanks to my parents for always staying behind me, to my brother and sister, you two have always been so good to me and have helped me through it all. I wish everyone the best of luck in the future.

Wow, it seems like throughout most of high school I've just been waiting for the time to pass faster, waiting to move on... But now that graduation is almost here, I realize that I'm more attached to my home than I thought. I have so many inside jokes and memories here that I think it might be harder than I thought to let go. I'll always remember Halloween this year, the day after prom, getting lost on my 17th birthday, and all our crazy plans. It seems like the weirdest, most insane days were the best. But in the end, it's not where you go, or what you do; it's who you're with that really matters. Thanks for everything guys!

Kara Krawfsky

I didn't think I was going to make it, but I did! Thanks to all my teachers and Mr. Barry for all your help with everything. I'm going to miss all the fun times but never forget them. Kelle and Emila, I don't know where to start! You guys are the reason I made it, I don't know what I would do without you girls, you are my best friends and I want to thank you so much for always being there for me. We have had so many fun times together! Dave Mathew's, Ozz Fest, Amanda's house over the summer, Hebron, UConn, I could go on forever! We always have those memories to remember and laugh about, and there will be lots more of them to come. I will always be there for you girls, never forget that! I wish you all the luck in the world, and I hope you are happy with whatever you do with your lives. To everyone else good luck and I will miss you. Holly, Lori, Heather, Camylle, Indya, Crystal, I love you girls, keep in touch! Ryan and Stacey, it was fun in all the art classes my mongooses! Michael McDougal, you have always been like a brother to me, I love you. Justin and Chris you know I had to shout you out, keep in touch boys. Whoever I forgot, Good luck!

Time flies when you're having fun and these past four years have been the best. So many fun times and good memories, parties at the shed, starting our own frat, camping out in Jim's backyard, quading, our tournaments, prom night, operation 37 all went wrong, after school ski Woodbury trips, my Vermont house, water skiing at Jim's lake, four wheeling on the power lines, waking up at 5:00 in the morning with Nick and Pat to get snow from the ice rink, Halloween night my shed very eventful, Tailgating, and everything else I can't recall these past four years have been the best ever and I am sad to see them coming to an end.

High school has been an interesting experience. If only I could remember what happened. I'll recall stuff, eventually. If not, it probably means I'll have Alzheimer's when I'm thirty. Good times in Latin, though. You know who you are. Much love to Christina, Laura, Lauren, Maggie, Julie, Whitney, Pam, Emily, Kathleen, Abi, Chasya, etc. I'll remember the rest of you later, but I want you all to know you've been such a blessing! "Dance every dance, live each day as though it's your last, and tell those you love how you feel before it's too late!" The moment we all thought we were ready for, back in 2000; has finally come. It is time for us to open to a new chapter and to begin a new journey. I have realized that our lives are like pyramids; magnificent structures, with a strong base that supports it through harsh and calm weather. All of you, who I have ever known, have become that strong base that constantly supports my life, and I am a better person for having known you. I don't have enough room to list each and every one of you but you're in my heart and prayers. Thank you for all the memories! From acquiring my nickname, pee tea, to the good times in chemistry class with our random polls. Thank you to the History department for inspiring me to become a history teacher.

Reach for the stars and catch your dreams. Yeah, I've learned a lot. People will come into your life and leave. Some will leave footprints others will leave nothing. Some of you have left footprints that will never fade (Ash) "great is the art of beginning, but greater is the art of ending." Four years ago was a great start to the next four years to come. Now at the end it's even greater. All the friendships I have made and the memories that will last forever. Thanks to those of you that have been there. Left to SWHS: my little brother d-ve, and my field hockey ladies! RIP: Phil, Scott, Leonard, and Savanna.

High school: aka fun. These four years have been awesome. Time that I shared with my brother, Matt, Ryan, Jeff, Jason and my girlfriend Asia, who I love. All the stupid things that we have done like making Jason call out of work to go to Krispy Kreme, Classic. I have learned many things from the people that I have been around. Things good and things bad. No matter what the people that have given me the most, taught me the most took care of me, put a roof over my head, clothes to wear and food to eat. Through all the hard time that I have put them through they are always there no matter how bad I treat them or no matter what I put them through they are there waiting with open arms and smiles, they are my family, and I would like to thank them for everything they have given me and important lessons they have taught me, Mom and Dad you guys are the best.

Three stones they say, for the past, present, and future. All the times on the lake and in the tubes with Christal. We played with those dolls every single day, and swam until our lips turned blue. I could be such a brat with those walks halfway home. Christal, I hope I can do that until I'm old and gray. All my family no matter what has happened; I love you all more than you will ever know. My other friends- you have helped through it all and I will never forget any of you. Let's live it up, while we still have time and never waste it on anything. Joe you've been the greatest. After four successful years at South Windsor High School, I have learned a great deal of knowledge in subject areas while learning to become a responsible leader and individual too. My experience in high school has demonstrated to me all the possibilities and options that lie before me for a career, always orienting my decisions to be based upon my own interests and individual dreams. My friends, such as Joe, Dan, Dave, Steve, Becky, Calvin, Erica, and Scott, have taught me that despite the important decisions to be made, one must enjoy these final years in high school before we are on our own. The four years passed by quickly, showing me a great deal about myself in social and work environments while helping me to realize my potential as both a student and a member of the community.

These past four years have gone by extremely fast. Growing up with all of you has been really cool. The lessons I've learned were not always easy but with the help of many of you I have made it through. To the football Cats, work as hard as you can so you have no regrets, it passes fast. Caleb and Mark thanks for four years, you taught me a lot. Young Mattie I love you kid and I'll be with you to guide you as long as I live. Thanks for your help. Lucien you are family to me. To my twin Joey, I wouldn't have made it without you, some day me and you will get the better end of the stick. Maaz, Cross, Tiger, Sabo, Druz, Jay, Chris, and Tim I'm sure the good times won't be forgotten. To the girls EJ and Dalpe thank you for being there for me and seeing something good in me. I can't believe I'm graduating. Overall these past four years have been a great experience. Now it's time to start the real journey. The journey of life. I have gained many great relationships and tons of knowledge along the way. I realized who my true friends are. Great times with my friends who made it great for me over these last four years. Legion/Fall ball with the fellas making fun of the third basemen, Nelli's after school, Friday and Saturday night with the boys, hanging at Tobin's, '04 Rec Ball with Mike, Alan, Charry. Good Luck to all my friends in college or whatever they do. "Live it up!" Finally many lessons have been learned from my family, especially my sister and teachers. To my family, you guys mean the world to me and stuck by me throughout everything no matter how much of a pain I was and I just wanted to say, Thanks.

It's been a wild ride, full of ups and downs, twists and turns. We've had our fair share of good times and bad, but in the end it was all worth it. I'll never forget the road trips to Marist, bowling, civics, crazy trips to Friendly's, English, summers at the cottage, The Big E, and Six Flags. Bandos- you guys make things so much fun! Stairwells (are you keeping it clean in here?), freezing Thursday nights, Rockville, Vernon Diner, officer buddies. Keep working hard. To the girls- we sure did have drama... without you guys I wouldn't be half the person I am today. Jesse- you have helped me so much these past four years, thank you. You are my best friend and I love you. Mom, Dad, Emily, and Carolyn- Thank you for always encouraging me to follow my dreams. I love you. Left to SWHS, Em ('08), Cara ('11).

All I have to say is what an experience. I can't say I learned a lot about education, but I can say I learned a lot about life itself. Freshman year lacrosse with the girls. Without you all these last four years wouldn't have been the same. We've seen each other through good times and bad. Junior year, our drama years. We were always there for each other. Lacrosse bus rides- you really did pick it! Don't lie Adria. See it jiggle see it wiggle, "our lacrosse chant!" Prom 2003- great memories. Twilight zones! Senior year my favorite. Thanks to Nikolas who has made me think about myself a lot more this year. Mom and Dad thanks for always being there and giving me strength to do better. Jason- Thanks for just being around and being my best friend. I leave SWHS to - Brandon (my dog) he will probably learn more than all the students will. Love you all! 2004!

I can't believe that four years are already gone. I know I would never have gotten this far without my friends. They are the people that have always been there for me. Family and friends; Christina, I don't know how to thank you enough for being you. You were always willing to just sit and listen. My hyper Nicholie... We've been through a lot, huh? Just never forget all of your new vocabulary! (rhinocoweez, lude, spiffy) as for all of the people I've had the privilege of meeting through numerous activities, I'll never forget you. The media center is what makes the school go round, and what happens in tech stays in tech. (Emily- happy trees!) I'd say something like good luck and goodbye, but no one I know needs any luck as they are capable of anything, and there never really is such a thing as goodbye.

I can't believe that these four years have already passed. Within these four years I have had the best times of my life. From going to Ski Woodbury on school nights and getting back at one in the morning with my boys P-Kup, Drew, Alan, Chris and O'Malley. The prom of '03 and good times at the barn. These were the best times of my life. The crazy things we did in school from blowing up stink bombs, to waking up at six in the morning to go to the ice arena with P-Kup and Foley just to make a snowman in the late summer. Man we had some fun times. I would like to thank a few who helped me get through my high school career. Especially my mom and dad who always had faith in me and to all my teachers (I hope I didn't give you too hard of a time) and finally to my friends who made these four years so much fun. So peace out and I'll miss this place.

I feel so fortunate

To have grown up in this place

To breathe the air and kick the dirt

As I stroll down memory lane

And everyone I speak to,

Puts a smile on my face

In a land of criticism

I look back and can't complain

The people of this town-

especially my peers

Have guided this journey

Into an exhilarating four years

To have experienced the love and friendship

That seldom a place can give

Makes me feel so very special

That this is where I live

And no it's not utopia,

And no it's not L.A.

But the calm and quiet village

Can come close on any day

For a town may be boring

With just libraries, schools and banks

But it's all how you perceive it

And for my memories

I give thanks

A friend once said that I had helped

To mold the school into what it came to be

But I think that, over time

The school and students, molded me.

Above all you'll still be my best friend. I love you.
